

Hanover Bank Opens Tenth Branch in Port Jefferson, Long Island Enhancing Banking Services to Suffolk County

June 25, 2025

PORT JEFFERSON, N.Y., June 25, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Hanover Community Bank ("Hanover Bank"), the bank subsidiary of Hanover Bancorp (Nasdaq "HNVR"), is excited to announce the opening of its tenth branch, located in the historic and bustling village of Port Jefferson on Long Island. This expansion marks a significant step in Hanover Bank's strategic growth, strengthening its commitment to serving both businesses and individual consumers across the Long Island region and beyond.

Strategically situated to serve the thriving Suffolk County area, the new Port Jefferson branch offers a full spectrum of commercial banking services, including commercial lending, treasury management, and cash flow solutions, to businesses of all sizes. In addition, the branch provides robust consumer banking services such as checking and savings accounts, personal loans, and digital banking tools.

"This opening marks an exciting milestone for Hanover Bank as we continue to grow in Suffolk County," said Michael P. Puorro, Chairman and CEO of Hanover Bank. "Port Jefferson is a vibrant center of business and community activity, and we're excited to bring our relationship-focused banking approach to this important market. Our goal is to deliver personalized, high-touch financial services that empower local residents and businesses while contributing to long-term economic development."

Conveniently located at One North Country Road, Port Jefferson, New York, the branch features modern design elements and dedicated spaces for consultations, making it easy for our clients to access the banking expertise they need in a welcoming environment.

As Hanover Bank's second branch in Suffolk County, the new Port Jefferson location plays a key role in the Bank's strategic expansion to deliver tailored, community-focused financial support to this revitalized hub and the surrounding areas. This location joins Hanover's expanding network of branches across Long Island, the New York metropolitan area, and Freehold, New Jersey. With ten branches now serving a diverse range of communities, Hanover Bank remains committed to its core mission: providing trusted, relationship-driven banking that consistently puts the customer first.

"Hanover Bank is proud to hire professionals who live and work in the communities we serve—reinforcing our commitment to building strong relationships and understanding the unique needs of each community and greater Long Island," concluded Mr. Puorro.

To celebrate the opening, Hanover Bank invites business leaders, residents, and community stakeholders to stop by and meet the local banking team and learn about the range of financial services now available in the heart of Port Jefferson. A formal Grand Opening cocktail party will be held at a later date.
